INSTRUCTIONS FOR BUSINESS ALLOCATION FORMULA - SCHEDULE D

The business allocation percentage is to be applied by NON-RESIDENT partners to their distributive share of business income if business activity of the partnership is conducted both within and without the City of Highland Park. In order to use "the separate accounting method" for years beginning on and after January 1, 1970, permission must be requested in writing from the administrator not more than 90 days after the beginning of the taxpayer's year.

Line 1. Enter in Column I the average net book value of all real and tangible personal prop" owned by the business, regardless of location; and in column II show the average net book value of the real and tangible personal prop" owned and located or used in the City of Highland Park. The average net book value of real and tangible personal property may be determined by adding the net book values at the beginning of the year and the net book values at the end of the year and dividing the sum thus obtained by two. Any other method which will accurately reflect the average net book value for the year will also be permitted.

Line I a. Enter in column I the gross annual rent multiplied by 8 for all rented real prop" regardless of location. In column II show the gross annual rent multiplied by 8 for rented real property, located in the City of Highland Park. Gross annual rent refers to real prop" only, rented or leased, and should include the actual sums of money or other consideration payable, directly or indirectly, by the taxpayer for the use or possession of such real prop".

Line 2. Enter in column I the total compensation paid to all employees during the year and in column II show the amount of compensation paid to employees paid for work done or services performed within the City of Highland Park during the year.

Line 3. Enter in column I the total gross receipts from all sales made or services rendered during the year and in column II show the amount of gross receipts from sales made or services rendered in the City of Highland Park during the year.
